

LURE OF MILK BOTTLE TAMES MISCHIEVOUS SEA LION BABY

Making pets of baby sea lions is the great fad at Seal Beach, Cal., this year. Miss Vera Teel is here shown giving "Toots" his daily ration of milk from the bottle. "Toots" is about 30 days old.

"Sea lion cubs are just like little puppies," says Miss Teel. "When they are young they have all the instincts of the dog, and are just as fond of humans as they are of their own aleek mothers.

"If the cubs are well fed and kept near people they become quite do-
